

Professional Touring Car Racing Made Affordable

Adenna to Establish Clean Pass Award in USTCC in 2018

Irvine, CA --. Adenna LLC will establish the Adenna Clean Pass award for the competitors in the United States Touring Championship (USTCC). The winning Adenna Clean Pass driver will be presented with an assortment of Adenna products.

Established in 1997, Adenna LLC markets and distributes a variety of hand protection and healthcare products around the world. Adenna ensures a rigid standard of excellence and affordability in their products to best serve the needs of customers across a variety of industries including automotive, industrial, safety, laboratory, law enforcement, tattoo body art, sanitary maintenance, healthcare, dental and veterinary care.

"We are very excited to be partnering up with USTCC as the automotive market is a huge market for Adenna," said Alex Barnes, Marketing Manager of Adenna LLC. "The USTCC is all about professional touring car racing made affordable while ensuring a high standard of excellence just like Adenna products," continued Alex.

The USTCC season starts out on April 14-15 at Thunderhill Raceway in Northern California with weekends at some of the finest tracks in the United States.

USTCC is a professional road racing series comprising of late model sport compact sedans such as BMW 3 series, Mazdaspeed 3, Hyundai Genesis Coupe, Honda Civic and others. The cars use slightly modified engines and highly modified suspensions with aerodynamic ground effects and sticky Hankook slick race tires. The races can be seen exclusively on Final Drive TV (www.finaldrive.tv) available on NBC Sports on Comcast cable, Dish Network, DirecTV and AT&T U-verse.
